Set Draft Machinery For 20,000 Recruits

Congress Kills Cabinet Change

Refuses To Establish New Health Dept.

WASHINGTON, July 11—(AP)—Rallying to a call of "no socialized medicine," congress has killed President Truman's plan to create a department of health, education and security.

The death blow to Mr. Truman's proposal that could have made Oscar Ewing a cabinet member was dealt yesterday by the house.

By 249 votes to 71 it passed a resolution vetoing the proposal to transfer all agencies of the Federal Security Agency (FSA) to a new department of health, education and security.

Major agencies involved were the Social Security Administration, the Office of Education and the Public Health Service.

Ewing heads the FSA, and was generally believed to be in line to become a cabinet officer had congress not rejected the reshuffling.

No senate action is required. The reorganization law permits either branch of Congress to nullify a reorganization plan within 60 days of its submission. The senate expenditures committee yesterday voted 6 to 3 against the FSA reorganization plan but the senate itself has not acted and won't have to, in view of the house veto.

It was the first Truman reorganization plan beaten by the house. Six others had been rejected by the senate. Twenty more have gone into effect without congressional disapproval. One more becomes effective on July 31, unless vetoed, and no opposition to it is sighted.

In all, the president has sent 27 reorganization plans to congress this year. They were based in varying degrees on recommendations of a bipartisan commission headed by former President Hoover.

Community Fund Directors To Meet

A meeting of directors of the Community Fund Association will be held at noon next Monday in the LaPe Hotel. The group will plan and set the dates for the coming drive in October and discuss the agencies to participate.

Last year the drive went over its quota of $35,480, with 10 agencies gaining benefits.

Stephen A. Gonda is chairman of the coming campaign and Gene Young is co-chairman. Harold Wyckoff, president, will officiate at Monday's meeting.

The agencies participating last year were USO, Catholic Charities Bureau, Central Clinic, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Home for the Aged Women, Memorial Building, Quaker City Band, Salvation Army and City Hospital.

Draft In Ohio Faces Delays

Few Weeks Needed To Set Up System

COLUMBUS, July 11—(AP)—State Selective Service officials awaited word from Washington today before setting in motion machinery to induct Ohio's share of a 20,000 national draft quota.

Even after the quota is received—and it is expected momentarily—several weeks will elapse before any Ohioans are sworn in at induction centers, said Col. Chester W. Goble, state selective service director.

Goble said a federal order to hire the manpower to staff Ohio's 127 draft boards was received yesterday and relayed to local boards.

After receiving the state quota, the first step toward procuring it will be to check and see that all 127 boards are staffed, the state director said.

Then the lists of registrants classified as 1A (top priority on inductions) must be rechecked. Goble said men who have married and become fathers since they registered will be reclassified.

French Gratitude Car Here Tomorrow

The Ohio car of the French Gratitude Train will appear in front of the American Legion home, State st and Lincoln, Wednesday from noon until 10 p. m.

Its appearance here, sponsored by the Salem Historical Society, will be for one day only.

The Ohio car is one of 49 such cars sent by the French people to the people of the United States as an expression of thanks for the Friendship Train sent from this country to France several years ago.

The Ohio car was formally accepted Feb. 12 for the people of the state by Governor Frank Lausche.

Currently, the car is on a summer tour of the state. Its gifts came from individuals or from groups such as orphans' homes, chambers of commerce, veterans', professional and civic groups and other organizations in the cities and provinces of France.

Some of the contents of the car are albums, photographs, paintings, mementos, dolls, plastic toys, copper and ceramic objects, clothing, embroidery, and many other cultural, historical, and communal gifts. One of the rare gifts is a Sevres porcelain vase sent by President Vincent Auriol of France.

Bond Issue For 4th St. School Gym Wins Favor

Board Of Education May Put $200,000 Question To Voters

The board of education is seriously considering presentation of a $200,000 bond issue to the voters of Salem in November for the construction of a large gym-auditorium at Fourth Street School.

Meeting Monday night the board was almost unanimous in its desire to let the people of Salem decide the question.

$100,000 In Fund
With $100,000 in fund for construction of a small gym at Fourth Street School, the board will need the additional money to build the larger structure.

"The city will have no opportunity to get a gym in the next 15 years," one member said "other than by using the Junior High site and funds."

Another said that many people believe a new high school will be built in about seven years which will include a new gym. "But," he said, "there is nothing definite to indicate that a new high school will be needed. Also I don't see how we will be financially able to build a new school in seven years."

Another board member pointed out that a gym at Fourth Street was more desirable than a separate fieldhouse, because it could be better administrated and could be used in connection with physical education, rather than exclusively for basketball games.

Reports on Meetings
The discussion followed a report by Supt. E. S. Kerr on three meetings he attended recently at which the project had been discussed. They included the Chamber of Commerce, Salem Civic Committee and the Junior-High School P.T.A.

The board asked the clerk to assemble figures on the Salem school enrollment, which may indicate if a new high school will be needed in the near future.

The basketball coaching situation at Salem High School, which subject of discussion had been anticipated in many quarters, was not even mentioned at the board meeting.

A Youngstown radio sportscaster Monday night predicted that the board would ask Coach Bob Miller's resignation.

Temporary Budget Passe
In other business matters conducted, the board reviewed the budget for 1949 and 1950 and approved the estimated budget for 1951.

Actual expenditures for 1949 were $491,854. This year the expenditures will be $485,800, with the last six months estimated. The proposed spending for 1951 is estimated at $498,300.

Heading the expenditures for next year will be the teachers' salaries, at $350,000. Administration will cost $20,000 and maintenance $14,000.

Of the income, $356,500 will be derived from general property tax, and $127,000 from the school foundation (state aid).

Reilly Job Nearly Done
The board agreed that the 12-room addition at Reilly School must be completed by Aug. 15 in time to open for the coming school year. Desks will have to be assembled and asphalt tile flooring must be laid before that.

One-Cent Rise In Bread Prices Noted
The price of bread is up one cent at most of the city's groceries today.

All major bakeries raised the price of their 20-ounce loaf to 17 cents. Other loaves that formerly sold for 14c and 15c were also raised a cent.

Local bakeries, however, reported no change in their prices, except for that being delivered. At the shops the standard loaves will retain the 15-cent price for the time being.

One local baker said the price may be raised next week. Delivered loaves were hiked to 17 cents.

Plan For Stand At Kum River As Fighting Rages

60-Ton Tanks Used By Communists; More U. S. Soldiers Slain

TOKYO, Wednesday, July 12.—(AP)—American defense forces fell back toward the Kum River line in South Korea today under a general North Korean assault powered by monster 60-ton Russian-made tanks.

Communists troops disguised as civilians infiltrated the American lines in advance of the big push.

The enemy's closest reported approach was near Chochiwon, five airline miles north of the Kum River—just major defense line north of Taejon (previously identified as U.S. field headquarters but omitted from late dispatches).

American troops fighting desperately to stem the Communist rush, but a field headquarters spokesman acknowledged they were withdrawing to previously prepared positions.

Overrun U.S. Positions
The Radio Pyongyang radio said North Korean troops had captured Umsong, 12 air miles southwest of Chongju, South Korea. It said Red troops took the city "and its surrounding areas" at 2 p. m. Monday.

The northern Korea radio also said three B-29 bombers were shot down in an American air raid on Pyongyang, North Korea. It said Red troops took the city "and its surrounding areas" at 2 p. m. Monday.

An American field headquarters spokesman said U. S. troops are withdrawing to prepared positions under North Korean pressure "being exerted all along our front line."

He said the North Korean radio were using infiltration tactics "as good as I have ever seen. They infiltrate by dressing in civilian clothes and move behind our lines at night."

The U. S. Fifth Air Force's light bombers supported by B-29s attacked bridges, highways and railroads with "excellent results," the general's communiqué said.

Fighter planes ranged widely, strafing highway, bridges and railroads with rockets and machineguns to support ground troops.

The huge tanks roared out of an early morning fog, crushing U. S. machinegun and light antitank positions. Behind them, Red troops—possibly a division strong—pressed the attack.

North Koreans who had infiltrated American lines during the night in civilian clothes, created confusion.

In Korea, an American field headquarters spokesman said "being exerted all along our front line."

The battle raged between Chosui and Chochiwon, 20 air miles north of Taejon. The spokesman said it still "was fluid." An unofficial report reaching Tokyo said Americans had fled from Chochiwon.

General MacArthur's communiqué, which is usually 12 to 24 hours behind field reports, said "American forces... are continuing their action to stabilize the situation by stopping the North Korean offensive above the Kum river." It was issued at 12:05 a.m. (10:05 a.m. Salem time Tuesday).

18 U. S. Soldiers Slain
Reports of North Korean atrocities mounted. A check of front line accounts showed 18 U. S. soldiers had been shot through the head after their hands were bound behind them.

(In Washington, the Defense department said 18 U. S. units had been destroyed and two disabled in Korea.)

Reports Seeing Bear, Cub Near Egypt Road
Two black bears were seen Monday near Salem by a local resident.

Loran J. Matthews of 1134 E. Third st said he saw a mother bear and her cub twice yesterday about 100 yards north of the Columbiana County line, just east of the Egypt road. Shortly before noon he reported seeing them romping in a clearing some 50 yards from the road and about 2 p. m. he said he saw them in some underbrush near the clearing.

Saturday Final Day To Pay Property Taxes

Legion Auxiliary
Conference SetSix Delegates Named
For District Session

COLUMBIANA, July 11—Delegates from the auxiliary of Firestone American Legion Post expect to leave early Wednesday for West Lafayette to attend the summer conference of the 10th district of the Ohio auxiliary. The conference is for one day only, and an all-day session is scheduled for tomorrow.

The delegates are Mrs. Richard Lehman, president; Mrs. Russell Hum, Mrs. Ray Culp, Mrs. Richard Sponseller, Mrs. R. G. Millen and Mrs. Bess Johnson. Mrs. Lehman will be chairman of the resolutions committee.

The same delegates were chosen to attend the state convention in Cleveland, August 5, 6 and 7.

ROBERT FORD, 20, of East Palestine, forfeited his bond of $125 for his appearance before Mayor Erwood Calvin at 6 p. m., Sunday, on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Ford, a U. S. Marine at home on furlough, was driving east on West Park ave. at 11 p. m., Saturday, when his car swerved a car belonging to Mrs. Margaret Linder of Leetonia, which was parked at Donbar's grocery on the south side of the street. After crashing the Linder car, Ford's car veered to the north side of the street, jumped the curb and uprooted a tree in front of Ira A. Schuennenberger's residence. Both cars were badly damaged. Ford was arrested by Patrolman William McGuckin.

Columbiana Briefs:

Salem Boy Scouts
Return With Relics

Bamboo and horned toads are now among the proud possessions in Salem homes as these, together with dozens of other objects, were brought back by the eight Salem Boy Scouts and their leaders from the national jamboree held last week in Valley Forge, Pa.

The boys arrived home at 4 a. m. Sunday.

Attending the jamboree were Joseph Needham, assistant scoutmaster; William McCormick, quartermaster; Myron Riegel, scribe; William Brehl, Gail Hanna, Everett Crawford, Jerry Hoyt, James Minamyer, Joseph Potts, Roy Nichols and Aaron Needham.

High points in the jamboree to the Salem boys included the big arena shows where all 47,000 Boy Scouts gathered to hear speakers such as President Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower. They enjoyed the trips around Valley Forge with its historical sites of General Washington's era. Side trips were made to Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

Local youths were prepared for trading sessions with many pottery neckerchief slides. Shellacked coal was the most unusual item of barter they saw.

Ponder Color TV
TransformationOnly One Firm To Get
Exclusive License

WASHINGTON, July 11—(AP)—The Communications Commission went behind closed doors today to start wrestling with the question of whether color television is ready and, if so, whose system is best.

Involved in the decision, expected to be made before the end of the summer, are many millions in patent royalties.

These will go either exclusively or in combination to Radio Corporation of America, Columbia Broadcasting System, or Color Television, Inc., of San Francisco, who alone have announced completed systems.

As FCC began its deliberations on the basis of more than nine months of public hearings, it had the benefit of an official report by a senate advisory committee on color television which asserted that color is here and that color broadcasting is practical in the channels now assigned to black-and-white operations.

The advisory committee recommended that the commission pick only one of the competing companies for commercial licensing. But it didn't say which one.

It said that any other course, involving "multiple standards" of video transmission, would "guarantee confusion" among the general public and delay color development.

Next Best Thing to a New Road!

YOU must understand, of course, that nothing in the world can take the place of a beautiful ribbon of improved highway——stretching so enticingly out into the open country, and all but beseeching you to come for a ride!

But under the happiest auspices, you will have to do much of your driving, for years to come, down roads and highways that leave something to be desired——and how lucky you'll be if you ride them out in a 1950 Cadillac!

In recent years, Cadillac has carried out a tremendous program of research and improvement to achieve a finer "rough-road" ride. The development work has covered steering, springs, shock absorbers, frame, wheels, tires, shackles—and all the attendant engineering problems involved.

In the 1950 Cadillacs, this program has come to full fruition—and the results are simply a revelation.

First, you get wonderful balance. The car "stays put"—and you have a reassuring feeling of stability, even when the going's uncommonly rough.

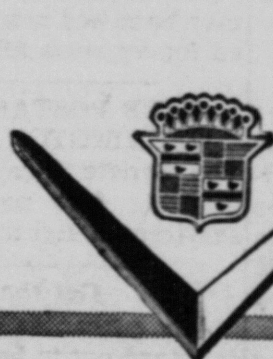

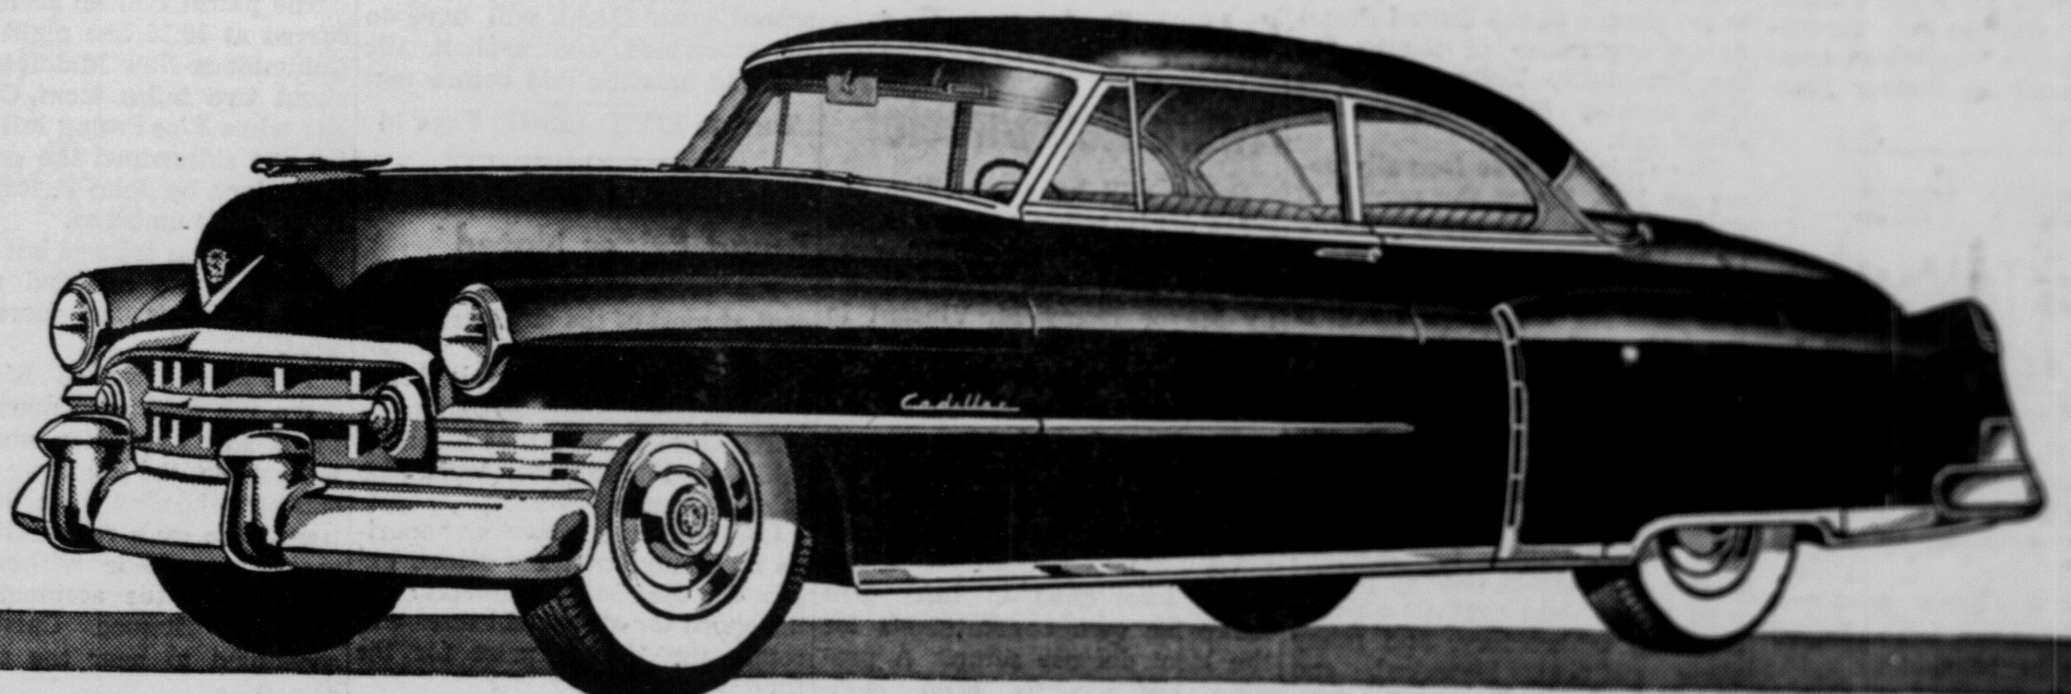

And your ride is amazingly level. You "float" over the bumps and the depressions, ever so gently. Only a road so bad that it deserves condemning can make itself obvious to either the driver or passengers.

And, of course, the remarkable quietness, of both body and chassis, shows up most dramatically on the roughest roads. For quality tells its finest story when the pressure is greatest.

Yes, there can be no question that a 1950 Cadillac is the next best thing to a new road!

Why not come in and get acquainted with this wonderful car? We'd be happy to see you any time.

Lima Tops Its Census Goal

50,000 Recorded For Ohio Community

LIMA, July 11—(AP)—A lot of people have been grumbling about results of the 1950 U.S. census—but Lima did something about it.

Full of civic pride, Lima wanted to hit the 50,000 mark for 1950. But, preliminary tabulations showed Lima with only 49,425 residents.

The Association of Commerce refused to let 575 persons balk its desire to reach 50,000. It set up a booth in Lima's public square and launched a 12-day call for voluntary registrations of those who believed themselves uncounted in the regular census. The association asked such persons to come to the downtown booth or telephone the association office.

More than 900 registrations were received, including "Mr. 50,000." This gentleman received prizes from Lima merchants and his picture in the newspaper as association leaders chortled gleefully.

Then a Lima delegation went to Washington. It turned over to A. Ross Eckler, deputy director of the U.S. Bureau of Census, the additional registrations.

Eckler said the list would be checked "name for name" with the regular list. If the new list yields enough names to warrant it, said Eckler, a secondary spot census will be ordered for Lima.

270 Die In Weekend Colombian Quakes

BOGOTA, Colombia, July 11—(AP)—The Health Ministry announced today 270 persons died in weekend earthquakes in Colombia.

Another 17,000 are injured or homeless in seven towns of Northcentral Colombia, newspaper reports indicated.

The towns of Arboledas, Cuculla and Salazar and the country area around them suffered most from the wave of five quakes. The ministry said nothing is left standing in Arboledas, which had 20,000 population.

Any Old Stick To Beat A Dog

PRELIMINARY moves to transfer the United States from uneasy peace to uncertain war have upset many political patterns.

The Truman administration, which expected to be kept on the defensive in a foreign-policy debate throughout this year's congressional campaign is now in a position to appeal for sympathy and understanding.

Among the individual casualties of the upset, though he insists nothing has happened which will cause him to change his plans, is Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin. His charge that the State Department is harboring Communist sympathizers had most of the steam taken out of it when the Truman administration switched its Asiatic policy and decided to help Korea, Formosa and Indo-China. It may be imagined that was not overlooked when the policy was switched. The Truman administration never has overlooked a political angle yet.

As the new policy goes forward, it will be interesting to note what happens to both Senator McCarthy and his charges. A hint that the State Department hopes to tear him to pieces in revenge for mentioning the skeletons in its files is found in the latest official statement. It is worth studying as a prime example of a public agency using public money to carry on a feud in government.

"The overwhelming majority of the Congress, the press, the radio and of all channels of public information and the American people have demonstrated unity of purpose at this critical moment," the statement says. "There is unfortunately one sour note in this scene. We have heard once again from Senator McCarthy."

There it is again—the claim that anyone who dares to question the government is violating the spirit of unity. The skeletons in the closet must be let alone from now on lest unity be disturbed—unity being defined in this connection as a state of letting bygones be bygones in order that there may be no interference with the mistakes waiting to be made in the near future.

Under The Blue And White

ALL AMERICANS will be from Missouri until they have been shown that the blue and white flag of the United Nations in Korea is more than a wisp of wishfulness.

Gen. MacArthur has been named commander of a United Nations military force in Korea, the first man to command the unified forces of that organization. This was done under authority of the U.N. Security Council, which gave the United States the privilege of naming a supreme commander. MacArthur was the logical choice.

But the fact is there were no other applicants. The fact is there is no other member of the United Nations represented in Korea, if the Soviet Union's interest in North Korea is barred from consideration. The only member reported to be sending help is Great Britain, though all but a handful of the 59 members have expressed intent to be helpful.

If the United States continues to support the United Nations, it has a fighting chance to survive and be useful. Without this country's support, it has no chance at all. The Korean episode looks like one of those critical intervals in human affairs when civilization can be advanced a notch or two by manifestation of good faith. If the blue and white flag of the United Nations is going to fly over Gen. MacArthur's headquarters, it should fly over something besides U.S. troops. The time has come for the United Nations to support the United States.

Draft Machinery In Readiness

THE FIRST effect of the announcement that use of selective service has been authorized will be a pickup in the enlistment rate. That is presumably the only effect which will be sought at this time by the government.

The Defense Department announcement Friday, it must be noted, dealt chiefly with the building up of operating strength in the Army, Navy and Air Force; the authorization of selective service, a matter of presidential discretion, was subordinate to the immediate purpose of expanding the limits of the armed services.

If new enlistments, plus the potentialities of reserves, do not prove sufficient to give the Department of Defense the manpower it requires, then additional manpower will have to be obtained by drafting. But it would require considerable time to put draft machinery into motion. After the machinery had gone in to motion, still more time would be required to get it into production. And still more time would be required to train the manpower it would produce.

The significance of all this is the prospect of bringing the nation to a war footing by moderate degrees, instead of by sudden degrees. The United States never tried that before. It is trying it now. Preparedness is ceasing to be a talking point and becoming a reality.

Russian Strategy

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Bleed Democracies Economically

ONE OF THE most important aims of Soviet strategy in furthering its world revolution is to bleed the democracies economically with the hope of thus rendering them vulnerable to Red attack.

This crafty line of thought long has permeated Bolshevik operations. A prime example of it was the Russian blockade of Western Berlin. That forced America and Britain to maintain a long and tremendously costly air-lift to provide the city with necessities.

And it's notable that Moscow carried out this coup without expending much strength herself. Now we have the Korean show, which is more or less a piece of the same cloth. Russia has two main objectives in backing Communist North Korea's invasion of non-Communist South Korea.

These objectives are (1) to gain control of the entire Korean peninsula because of its strategic value in possible future operations, and (2) to compel America and other western Allies to spread themselves and to expand economic strength in defending the South Korean republic.

AGAIN WE NOTE that while Russia has trained the North Korean armies, and has provided many sinews of war, the Soviet itself hasn't become directly involved. As usual she is using one of her satellites to do the heavy work for her—under expert Russian military guidance, of course.

Evidence that Russia again has been crafty is seen in the reaction by the western powers. John M. Hightower, AP diplomatic expert in Washington, reports that administration officials are beginning to regard the Korean war as a long, difficult and costly struggle for America.

Hightower adds that, depending on how the fighting goes, this development of a less optimistic outlook about an early end to the war apparently means a steady build-up of American forces in the war zone—with increasing requirements for money, men and munitions. Furthermore, the U. S. is faced with the need to keep up a billion dollar flow of arms to Western Europe, the Middle East and Southeast Asia, while keeping its own forces set to deal with any new moves by the Red bloc.

So that's the strain Russia is putting on America, without taking on any great additional load herself. And Korea isn't by any means the only theatre involved in this Red strategy.

OVER IN CHINA the Chinese Communist regime has served notice on the United Nations that it is determined to capture the big island of Formosa "despite any military steps of obstruction taken by the United States government." America has assigned naval units to protect Formosa, which is the seat of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist government and his last stronghold.

And what is the significance of this? Well, it means that Moscow is pushing another of its satellites into the foreground to challenge America. It is an effort to make the United States weaken itself by widening its operations.

That there is the making of a long and costly struggle in Korea certainly is in the cards. As this column has pointed out before, Russia is in the position of pouring an endless stream of Manchurian and Chinese Communist troops down through the North Korean funnel into South Korea. So long as this can continue there always will be new Red troops to take the place of those knocked out.

The U. S. A. will have to bring a mighty lot of military strength into play before the situation can be overcome—and that will take time. This accounts for America's action in ordering use of the draft to bring her armed forces up to full operating strength for the Korean war.

Insert One Chuckle

By TRUMAN TWILL

THIS is a gala occasion for experts—right now while everybody is trying to get his mind adjusted to the fact the United States and the Soviet Union are swapping something deadlier than insults.

The experts are itching to rush into the vacuum created by their own punk guesses as these are tossed into the discard by embittered persons who thought the experts knew what they were talking about the first time. They didn't know—and they still don't know. But that will not keep them from blurring out a new batch of predictions and estimates based on nothing but their own misinformation.

The noteworthy thing about experts is that the less they know the more positive they are about what they claim to know. The best place to look for a positive declaration at a time like this is in the worst-informed places. In well-informed places, no one is ever positive about anything. That makes no allowance, of course, for propaganda, which is something else again.

This is the time to pull the string on human beings who claim to know more than they do know and time to get back into the good, sane American habit of sprinkling salt on everything that smells like propaganda. There is a way to do this. Before revealing what it is, it should be pointed out that a distinction should be made between those who claim to know too much and to have all the answers and those who are merely trying to keep abreast of what is going on. The latter is one of the basic responsibilities of being a citizen of a free country. This is directed only at the know-it-alls. They are the ones who need to have their strings pulled.

They come in many varieties, from the big Pentagon model bound in brass to the stuffed-shirt model with the iron head. They are journalists, radio commentators, janitors, businessmen, professional people and friends and neighbors. They have a common weakness. They cannot stand ridicule.

That makes it possible to dispose of them easily and quickly wherever they are encountered. Merely insert a well-timed chuckle five seconds after they have quit pontificating. This is a bloodless operation. It requires no skill, other than the skill required to keep out of an argument.

There is no rebuttal for a chuckle. The victim either must chuckle in reply, or get sore. In either case, he is ruined as far as being an expert is concerned. At the beginning of the latest in a series of crises that have spawned bogus experts like rats in a city dump, it behooves everybody to insert his chuckles where they will ruin the most experts.

One Big Party

MIDDLETOWN, O.

HERE is the kind of birthday party you may have been looking for.

The guests—perhaps 50,000 of them—don't have to bring any presents. Everything at the party is free. That includes the eats, the drinks and the entertainment which will be everything from tossing rings on canes to a wrestling show and an aquacade.

And the hosts and the fellow workers will do all the work.

The party is to be held Wednesday in Middletown to celebrate the Armco Steel Corporation's 50th anniversary.

Hosts will be Armco and its employees. Guests will be anyone in Middletown and its environs that wants to attend.

Charles R. Hook, Armco's chairman, explained it this way: "We are inviting everyone in Middletown to come to our party and help us celebrate our golden anniversary. Middletown has played a vital role in Armco's progress."

"Because the city and our company have always worked together in a spirit of helpful cooperation, we have grown to be the occasion together."

Doing Pretty Good So Far

U. S. Not Prepared For Global Duties

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON

IMMEDIATE preparation has been ordered to meet military contingencies that may arise at any moment in Formosa and Indo-China as well as Korea.

Here is what it means—summarizing the views of military men who believe that resolute and unhesitating action now will stave off thrusts of the Communists in critical areas of the world:

1. It means at least 120,000 more American troops for Korea alone—half for combat and half for support. There were about 120,000 American troops in Japan before the Korean war broke out, and this army has to be reinforced.

2. It means that at least three more of the large aircraft carriers of the Essex type—of which 17 are in "mothballs"—must be commissioned promptly and the requisite number of cruisers and destroyers added to protect the carriers against submarine attack.

3. It means also—and this is the most acute need of all—there must be more transports made available at once. Auxiliary ships of all kinds, not only to carry troops and planes—but to transport fuel and food and ammunition, must be taken out of "mothballs" immediately and crews assembled to sail them.

More than 150 ships will be needed for this purpose. No requisitioning of the big passenger liners of Great Britain and the United States will be necessary in the Atlantic unless general war breaks out, but it may be necessary to take over some of the passenger ships in the Pacific this summer.

PERHAPS most important of all news is that the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff have been unanimous in their recommendations and harmonious in their functioning from the start of the Korean crisis and that it is at the civilian end where things have bogged down.

The delays have been due to tape and a tendency to waste time asking the military people to give detailed breakdowns and justify their requests. This is inexcusable.

The remedy for these delays lies in putting the White House and the various civilian secretaries of the armed services on a war footing. The three operating heads of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff should meet at least once a day with the commander-in-chief, and the latter would then get his military advice direct. He could cut red tape and issue orders to reduce civilian "kibitzing" and the lengthy paper work which is all right in peacetime but which becomes a frustration in wartime.

There are four civilian secretaries for the armed services—various committees set up by them, as well as a civilian agency known as the National Security Council which is interjected between the joint chiefs and the President. Congress never intended that to be the practical setup in wartime.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Curious Rickettsial Diseases

Q FEVER, Marseille fever, and rickettsialpox are diseases which few people have heard much about. Typhus or jail fever, Rocky Mountain spotted fever and Tsutsugamushi disease (the scrub typhus of the war) have attracted more attention. All of these diseases are caused by tiny living bodies known as Rickettsiae.

Several of them, particularly Q fever and rickettsialpox, are rather new diseases and as yet have not caused much trouble though one can never be certain that they will not do so in the future.

One of the most curious of these rickettsial diseases is rickettsialpox, which was reported from New York City three or four years ago. This disease starts suddenly with chills, fever, sweats and backache. In a day or two a rash comes out. About a week before the chills and fever a small round, firm, reddish spot shows up on the skin.

In most cases the rash lasts between four to seven days; in the more severe cases as long as 10 days. All of the patients so far seen have recovered without complications.

Rickettsias have been found in the blood of patients with rickettsialpox. They have been found also in a louse-like parasite living on mice caught in the neighborhood where many of the patients lived. The obvious conclusion is that the infecting organisms occurred in mice, were picked up by the mouse parasites and the parasites carried the rickettsias to human beings and thereby gave them the infection.

Another important group of diseases caused by rickettsias are the spotted fevers of which Rocky Mountain spotted fever is the best known example in this country. This disease is carried by at least two different kinds of ticks, the wood tick being most common in the western states and the dog tick in the Atlantic region.

Reasonably good vaccines to prevent Rocky Mountain spotted fever have been prepared. Those who live in or travel in areas when this disease is prevalent should be vaccinated.

A chemical compound called para-aminobenzoic acid seems promising in the treatment of at least some of the diseases in this group. Fortunately both aureomycin and chloramphenicol also seem to give favorable results in treatment.

2nd Division

By HAL BOYLE

Familiar Infantrymen Go Abroad

THE GUY who wears a badge that looks like the other side of a buffalo nickel is going overseas again—ready to fight for America. He's done it before, he's ready now and he'll do it anytime he's called on.

Who is he? He's the guy with the Indianhead patch on his shoulder—the GI Joe who has worn this emblem of the Second Infantry Division proudly and with great combat success in two world wars.

It's a famous division. Everyone in the army knows it—and knows it record. It has been alerted at its Fort Lewis, Wash. base to get ready to go to the Far East. And this news today must send a thrill of warm memory through tens of thousands of Americans of two generations. Some who served with the Second Infantry at the Argonne in 1918 had sons who went with it from the hedgerows of Normandy to the River Elbe between 1944 and 1945.

I DON'T KNOW who posed for the profile Indian view of their emblem—Sitting Bull, Crazy Horse, Geronimo, or a tired old buck from a dreary reservation in upper New York state.

But this I know about the Second Infantry Division from a long acquaintance—a year in wartime equals a lifetime of peace, and just a bit more—and that is this:

The wearers of the Indianhead patch are an emergency outfit. Like their shoulder-to-shoulder comrades in Europe, the equally famous "Fighting First" Infantry Division, they are an old-line regular army outfit. On their performance depends the professional reputation of the professional American army.

They are used to delivering in emergencies. They have a pride of arms, a tradition of performance in battle, a morale in being, that measures out military strength as a nation.

It is true that they may be sent to the Pacific area as occupation troops. In Japan to replace the 24th Infantry Division units summoned already to Korea. That could be temporary or permanent, as the needs of the situation develop. But I am sure that General MacArthur will be less lonely to have them under his command. For the tradition that this unit has is what top commanders like to rely on—when the cards are down, the die is cast.

They want to have under them a division that has proved itself before in battle. Wouldn't you, if you were going to boss a big fight?

ONLY 32 OF the present 13,000 men in the division marched with it through France and Germany. But they are a hard solid core of trained men to pass on to the youngsters the Second Division's tradition of standing firm in time of trouble.

If they meet the test again, I can imagine a veteran sergeant telling a boy swept by his first fear of death:

"You think it's tough now, kid? Just about five years and eight months ago we were parked near the German-Belgian border. We looked out on a snowy December day and damned if it didn't seem like they were throwing the whole Nazi army against us."

"We were on the northern shoulder helping protect Leige, our big supply dump. And if they'd got through us the war would have gone on some longer. They hit us with every damned thing they could think of—tanks, and artillery and infantry and even spies wearing our uniforms and riding in captured American jeeps. You couldn't even tell a buddy from an enemy—for sure."

"But we held them. They didn't get through. It went on for 72 straight hours, day and night. The old man—Maj. Gen. Walter M. Robertson, he's retired now—called up the cooks and the truck drivers. Hell, we knocked out German tanks by setting fire to gasoline cans and dropping 'em on them from command headquarters."

"But, dammit, we didn't let them through. They didn't get by."

The main thing now about the Indianhead Division is—I don't believe even the U.S. Marines will find anything to object about its battle ability if the fortunes of war should ever decree that they fight, side by side.

Ruby McDorman Becomes Bride

WHITT GLADIOLI and greenery were combined in the altar decorations for the wedding of Miss Ruby McDorman, daughter of R. N. McDorman of the Columbiana-Canfield rd. and John Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Marshall, of the Beloit-Unity rd., Saturday evening in the Locust Grove Baptist Church.

Rev. W. Wigglesworth, pastor, conducted the ceremony by candlelight. It was preceded by a musical program presented by Miss Dorothy Spangler, soloist, and Mrs. Frank Mangus, organist. The bride was dressed in white marquisette with frills of Chantilly lace edging the long sleeves and outlining the yoke. A cap of lace held her finger-tip length veil and she carried white gladioli and blue delphinium in a bouquet.

Mrs. Joseph Hnat of Detroit, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Attired in a blue marquisette dress, she carried yellow roses. Miss Lottie Smith, bridesmaid, was in yellow and carried pink roses.

James Marshall served his brother as best man and William McDorman and Ivan Gable ushered. The wedding reception was held in the church social room.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are both employed in Youngstown and upon their return from an eastern honeymoon trip they will reside in that city.

Winifred Shelles' Betrothal Announced

THE ENGAGEMENT and forthcoming marriage of Miss Winifred A. Shelles, teacher in the Salem schools for the past two years, and Donald W. Dickson of Broad Meadows Farm, Petersburg, is announced by the future bride's father, Charles Shelles of Toledo.

Miss Shelles is a graduate of Bowling Green State University, where she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. She taught at the Perrysville, O., school before coming to Salem.

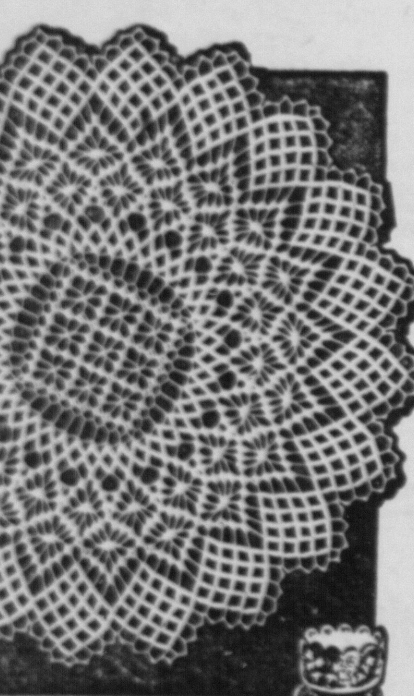

Mr. Dickson is a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. He is a former employee of The Lyle Printing Co., and while with that company was editor of Farm and Dairy for a time. He is now engaged in farming.

Miss Shelles and Mr. Dickson are planning their wedding for Aug. 19 in the First Methodist Church. Custom of open church will be observed.

Vacation Clothes

Do Double Duty

A CAPSULE WARDROBE for

a summer weekend vacation is one which fits neatly into a small travel bag, packs well, and doubles itself according to need. Thus, a single dress comes out into the sun in the afternoon and appears again at dinner as an entirely different costume.

In the hands of designer David Crystal, a simple white pique dress tells two stories. The dress has a modified V neckline and large hip pockets. For daytime wear, this designer gives it a shrug sweater in bright red (right) and matching belt.

By night, the dress wears another look (left) through subtraction of sweater and belt and addition of a black cotton eyelet overskirt which ties on. Worn with simple black suede pumps and light jewelry touches, this dress can go many places after dark.

Johnston-McGee Vows Heard In Bride's Homeworth Home

THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. STUART M. JOHNSTON of Homeworth was the scene of a prettily appointed wedding at 2:30 Saturday when their daughter, Miss Rosanna J. Johnston, became the bride of Robert E. McGee, son of Mrs. Laura McGee of Alliance.

Rev. Hugh C. Thompson of Taylorstown, Pa., officiated in the double-ring ceremony solemnized before a background of roses. Miss Jean Swallen played the love melodies and also accompanied Miss Peggy Johnston, niece of the bride, who sang "At Dawning."

Mr. Johnston gave his daughter in marriage. Her street-length dress of ivory silk had a sweetheart neckline and was trimmed in white net and gold rosebuds. The material for her dress was sent from Europe by her brother, Clare, during the war. Her finger-tip length veil was borrowed from a friend as was the lace handkerchief she carried. White roses and blue delphinium formed her bouquet.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. William E. Jones, wore a yellow taffeta frock and complemented it with a corsage of roses and daisies. Stuart M. Johnston, Jr. was best man.

Mrs. Johnston dressed in a pink floral bemberg for her daughter's wedding, while Mrs. McGee wore a aqua print bemberg. Both wore corsages of rosebuds.

Approximately 75 guests attended the reception. Some of them were from Salem.

Following an eastern wedding trip, the couple will reside at 735 S. Haines ave. The bride is head of circulation at the Carnegie Library, Alliance. Her husband is a draftsman at the Alliance Machine Co. Plant.

Pravda Says West Is Arming Germany

MOSCOW, July 11—(AP)—Pravda charged today that the western powers have given orders for the immediate formation of a permanent West German army of 30,000 men.

The newspaper, official organ of the Communist party, called it "the new, most crude violation of the Potsdam agreements by the western powers."

Pravda, in a Tass dispatch from Berlin, said the army would be mechanized and have automatic weapons.

It said Hitlerite officers of all ranks were arriving in the West German capital of Bonn to lead the army.

This step, it said, had given rise to wide alarm among the German population.

The West German government, fearing an attack from the East, has asked the western allies for permission to set up a central West German federal police force of 25,000 men.

The request was turned down June 22, but following the outbreak of the Korean war, U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy said the occupation authorities were willing to consider the request.

Gas Companies Ask Expansion in Ohio

WASHINGTON, July 11—(AP)—Four Pittsburgh subsidiaries of Columbia Gas asked the Power Commission yesterday for authority to expand their natural gas transmission systems in Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and New York.

The subsidiaries are Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Co., Natural Gas Co. of West Virginia and Home Gas Co. The estimated total cost of the expansion is $1,664,570.

Manufacturers said it plans to build 44 miles of pipeline on its system in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Natural Gas Co. of West Virginia said it plans to build 4½ miles of line in Ohio.

Three Minor Accidents Occur On City Streets

Three local traffic accidents were reported by police today.

The truck driven by Jack Bryarly of Sebring collided with the car driven by Edna C. Humphreys of 962 Liberty st. at 9:35 p. m. Monday. Police said the accident occurred on N. Lincoln when the auto was driven away from a parked position in front of the high school. The auto was slightly damaged.

Margaret S. Schwartz of 989 S. Lincoln reported to police that her parked auto drifted from in front of 854 Homewood ave at 3:20 p. m. Monday. The left front door which came open struck a tree in front of 826 Homewood, was bent back against the left front fender.

Cars driven by Amos Huppely of R. D. 5, Salem, and Edwin Jeffries, also of R. D. 5, Salem, were involved in a collision at 4:50 p. m. on E. State st. Mr. Jeffries told police he made a quick stop to avoid hitting a pedestrian when his auto was struck from behind by the Huppely car.

Newlyweds Return From Honeymoon

MR. AND MRS. Raymond Longbottom, who were married in a candlelight wedding Friday evening, June 30, in the Columbian First Methodist Church, are home from a honeymoon trip. They are residing in New Waterford.

Josephine Thompson daughter of Mrs. Theresa Franks of Columbiana, and Raymond Longbottom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Longbottom of Washington, were married by Rev. W. S. Longworth, pastor of the church, in the double-ring ceremony. Twin vases of white flowers graced the altar.

The bride's lovely blue satin gown was trimmed in lace. She wore a matching halo hat and mitts and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and yellow daisies. Joseph Frank gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. Elmer Coyle, Columbiana musician, played the love melodies.

Alice Fisher, maid of honor, was gownned in pink taffeta trimmed in lace and wore a matching halo hat and white gloves. Betty Joslin, bridesmaid, wore a pink taffeta costume, a halo hat and pink lace gloves. Both carried bouquets of blue carnations and white daisies.

George Hinchcliffe was best man and Stephen Frank brother of the bride, and Wilbur Senior, were ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in a navy blue sheer print, while the groom's mother was in light blue sheer. Both wore orchid corsages.

The wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. Longbottom's parents in Washingtonville. Flowers adorned the refreshment table which was centered with a tiered wedding cake topped with an ornament. For going away the bride was dressed in white organdie trimmed in kelly green. She wore a white coat and used brown and white accessories.

Attendants were remembered with gifts.

Mr. Longbottom is a graduate of Leetonia High School. He is an employee of the Kenmar Mfg. Co., at East Palestine.

Birthday Party Honors Billie Rae Hoffman, 5

Eighteen children enjoyed a party given by Mrs. Ray Hoffman Saturday afternoon in the home of her mother, Mrs. W. B. Sproat, E. Sixth st., to celebrate the fifth birthday of her daughter, Billie Rae.

Game prizes were shared by Ronnie Crumbaker, Chuckie Rheutan and Connie Jean McAfee. A large birthday cake topped with a "circus scene" was served with the refreshments. Clown bags filled with candy were favors. Guests were from Salem and Canfield.

INSPECTION BY REQUEST

LITTLE-KNOWN but important public service performed by the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary is the annual courtesy motorboat inspection program. Inspections are made only at the request of motorboat owners, of whom more than 17,000 availed themselves of the opportunity last summer. No official action is taken when a boat fails to pass inspection, but advice is given on how to correct deficiencies and meet legal requirements.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

OPINION—GOSSIP—NOTES—

Daily Dozen

By BOB DIXON

The minor leagues are again howling about the effect television is having on their turn-of-the-century revolutions.

They estimate they've lost a million fans during the first half of the season, most of it due to the inroads of TV.

We've heard arguments pro and con on the subject for more than a year now, most of which seem to indicate that the new medium has hurt baseball.

Can there be any doubt about it? Have you ever had the choice of driving to Cleveland to a game on a dark, murky day or staying safely at home and watching the tilt on a sheltered screen?

We have, and we don't go to Cleveland. Why risk driving 140 miles only to have your game rained out or get wet yourself?

The same decision is reached when you suffer from one of those lazy days, when that long drive just doesn't seem worth while.

• Every time that happens to a fan, it costs some ball club about $4 in admissions. Multiply that by the number of TV sets in northern Ohio and it begins to mount up.

• Telecasts of a ball game aren't as satisfying as sitting in a box seat in upper 19, but they are certainly the next best thing.

• You can't follow the ball as well or get the full panorama effect, but it's better than listening to a here radio report.

• TV sportscasts have been a big boon to the bedridden and shut-ins, and for that reason ball clubs are going to find it hard to cancel telecasts if they finally reach that decision.

• It will be like outright robbery to take that entertainment away from people who have become accustomed to it in the past two years.

• The only answer seems to be for the clubs to charge huge fees to the advertisers using the shows. That way they'll make up almost all of the revenue lost when those-out-town fans don't feel like making the trek.

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER

JAKE LAMOTTA, sometimes known as the Bronx Bull, finally is going to defend his middleweight championship Wednesday, unless he suffers an injury or a change of mind.

He is favored at 8 to 5 to turn back the challenge of Tiberio Mitri, the fancy dan European champion who generally is regarded as strictly a boxer, although he insists he can hit with knockout power when he wants to.

LaMotta supposedly has slowed up since he won the crown a year ago almost to the day from Marcel Cerdan. There also are persistent reports that LaMotta is having trouble getting off the extra poundage he has been carrying in over-the-weight bouts.

He has weighed up close to 170 and must weigh in Wednesday at 160 and while he undoubtedly will make it, there is a question whether he will retain his endurance.

If Mitri is as good as his record indicates LaMotta will need his full strength for this 15-round.

In his only start in this country, Mitri took a decision over Dick Wagner, whom LaMotta knocked out, so there is not much of a line to be had on him, except from what his record shows.

The record says he has had 52 professional fights without a loss. He was held to three draws. LaMotta never did get around to a return match with Cerdan after their bout in June of last year. First LaMotta hurt himself in training and Cerdan was killed in a plane crash.

LaMotta was booked to meet his pal, Rocky Graziano, but when Graziano hurt his left hand in training a new date was set and Mitri signed up as challenger. Mitri is 24, experienced and game. LaMotta is 29 and boasts the same attributes.

The fight has caught on pretty good, as they say, and a crowd of about 12,000, maybe more, will pay about $75,000 at a top price of $15 to watch the scuffle. There will be no broadcast either by radio or television.

Dots And Jots

COUPLE of theories about the so-called rabbit ball: . . . Red Strader, the football Yankees coach who did a little major league catching, points out that baseball isn't the only sport where the heavy emphasis is on scoring. . . . It goes for football, too, and basketball. . . . In the latter game, for instance, they used to spend minutes maneuvering for a sure two-handed shot. Now every kid who comes along can pop 'em in with one hand from almost anywhere. . . . In baseball, Red argues, the schools, American Legion and other organized kid programs are turning out more well-coached players than ever before. . . . And their main idea is to wallop that ball as far as possible every time. . . . Billy Southworth, who insists the ball is a lot livelier than before, adds the observation that a lot of pop flies go for base hits these days because outfielders play so far back looking for the long drives that they can't come in for the short ones. . . . "I was taught that you can't go back farther than that wall," says Billy. "I played just far enough away that I could go back to it if necessary, play the ball if it bounced off the wall or come in for the pop flies."

Both LaMotta, Mitri Predict Fight Wins

NEW YORK, July 11—(AP)—Jake La Motta of the Bronx will meet Tiberio Mitri in a 15-round bout tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden for the world middleweight title.

La Motta and Mitri today had a word or two about the battle.

"It will be a long time before anybody wins the middleweight championship from me," said Jake. "I like being champion and I intend to remain champion. I am in the best of shape of my career, mentally and physically. I will be too strong for Mitri."

Said Mitri: "I know I will win. My condition is perfect and I have had the best training for the first time in my life. Maybe I will surprise La Motta with my punch, too. If he thinks he can win by knockout, so do I. I will win."

Dick Attlesley Sets New High Hurdle Mark

HELSINKI, Finland, July 11—(AP)—Dick Attlesley of Southern California bettered a world high hurdle record for the third time this year in an international track meet last night.

He hopped over the 110-meter high hurdles in 13.5 seconds, two-tenths faster than the mark held by Fred Walcott of Rice and Spec Towns of Georgia.

Another touring U. S. squad competed at Oslo, Norway, last night. Winners there included: Jim Gehrdes, Penn State, 100-meter dash—10.7 and 110-meter high hurdles—15.

Mal Whitfield, Dayton, O., 800-meter run—1:54.1.

Dave Albritten, Dayton, high jump—6 feet 4 1/2 inches.

Albritten, Gehrdes, Cunningham and Whitfield won the 1,000-meter relay in track record time of 1:51.4.

Rosen Socks Four-Run Homer In Dayton Tilt

CLEVELAND, July 11—(AP)—Cleveland's Al Rosen had another grand slam home run to his credit today but it didn't count.

He hit it in an exhibition game at Dayton last night with the Indians farm team there. Even with that, Cleveland won by only 7 to 6.

Dayton gave the big brothers a scare in the ninth inning. With two out, Joe Rowell walked. Mike Lutz singled and Rowell scored on Dale Mitchell's error. Then Marino Pieretti forced Joe Macko of Port Clinton to pop out.

Rosen's homer came in the first inning.

The Indians open a long eastern road trip in New York Thursday night.

Mickey Harris, Eddie Yost and Sam Mele of the Washington Senators are products of the Queens county sandlots in New York City.

The Salem Merchants will meet Lisbon in a county league game at 6:30 Wednesday evening at Centennial Park.

Stengel Unhappy About Hurlers As All-Stars Take Over For Day

Claims He May Pitch Lemon, Houtteman

By JOE REICHLER

CHICAGO, July 11—(AP)—Yankee Vic Raschi and the Phils' $25,000 bonus baby, Robin Roberts, clash today in the 17th renewal of the All-Star baseball game at its Comiskey park birthplace.

Although the fans' dream game has become a managers' nightmare, a sellout crowd of 49,000 is due to jam the Chicago White Sox ball park by game time. The first ball is to be pitched at 2:30 p. m. (DST) with television (NBC) and radio (MBS) swinging into action 15 minutes earlier.

The embarrassed National League, trailing 12-4 in games, is a 9 to 5 underdog.

Burt Shotton, Brooklyn manager, is on the hot seat with Chicago fans because he tried to keep the Cubs' Hank Sauer out of his starting lineup. The fans, who voted Sauer into third place among the outfielders with more than 700,000 ballots, won out in the end. Sauer finally was restored to the starting lineup after Commissioner A. B. Chandler reversed an earlier ruling.

Sauer, normally a left fielder not noted for his defensive skill, will be in center because Shotton doesn't want to change two outfielders.

"I don't want to break up two positions to fill one," he said, "if I moved Enos Slaughter (St. Louis) to center, then I'd have to play Sauer in right and only Ralph Kiner (Pittsburgh) would be playing a familiar position. I've got to put Sauer in center. I'm just sorry about that."

SHOTTON ADDED, with a wink, that he'd just instruct his pitchers not to permit the batters to hit fly balls out there.

"For all I know," he said, "Sauer may turn out to be the star of the game. I hope so."

Manager Casey Stengel of the American League stars makes no secret of his displeasure over the use of several of his pitching selections last Sunday.

After naming Raschi to pitch the first three innings, Casey was cagey concerning his pitching alignment beyond the New York Yankee righthander.

"I don't know who I'll use after that," he said. "I may use Detroit's Art Houtteman and Cleveland's Bob Lemon—both of whom pitched Sunday."

Casey alluded to the three Yankee hurlers on the squad—southpaw Tommy Byrne, righthander Allie Reynolds and Raschi. "I arranged for them to be ready."

IT WAS FELT, however, that Casey, despite his chagrin, would use Detroit's Ted Gray in the middle three innings and would finish with Chicago's Ray Scarborough.

Shotton also was reluctant to name the hurlers who would follow Philadelphia's Roberts to the mound.

"I doubt that any of my three will be a lefthander, except in an emergency," Shotton said. Brooklyn's Preacher Roe and Boston's Warren Spahn are the only lefthanders among the eight pitchers.

Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell and either Brooklyn's Don Newcombe or Larry Jansen are likely choices to follow Roberts.

Shotton planned to make very few changes in the starting lineup in the event his team got off on top.

"It's honor enough for a man to be named on the squad," he said. "I will make no changes if I'm ahead. I'm not going to put a man in the game just to get his name in the box score. We're out to win this one and I'm going to use the best men as long as I can."

Except for Yankee Joe DiMaggio and Yogi Berra, all players were in good physical shape. DiMaggio, who pulled a leg muscle in Sunday's game and Berra, who aggravated an old leg injury in the same game, are not seriously injured and were expected to play.

'Draft Could Hurt' Is Fesler Comment

COLUMBUS, O., July 11—(AP)—"The draft could murder us," said Coach Wesley Fesler today as he surveyed his youthful Ohio State football squad.

Fesler, who has what he believes is the youngest squad in the Western Conference, has good reason to fear the selective service.

Of his 66-man squad, only seven upperclassmen would be exempt. Six are veterans and one—Sophomore Bernie Skvarka of Struthers—is only 18.

Selective Service has called for the registration and possible induction of all men between 19 and 26.

The first national draft quota already has been set for 20,000 men. Veterans are exempt at the present time. Older registrants will be called first.

"We've got our fingers crossed," Fesler told newsmen. "The draft could hurt us a lot."

The varsity squad is made up of 28 sophomores, 23 juniors and 15 seniors. None is over the 26-year mark, and several who are

Minors May Appeal To Justice Dept.

CHICAGO, July 11—(AP)—Is this the year—with television and widespread broadcasts of major league play—that may decide the fate of minor league baseball?

The two major loops waded through some new business, including a relaxation of the March 1 deadline for the start of spring training.

But the alarming note of the joint meeting was this report by President George M. Trautman of Columbus, O., of the National

Additional Sports News On Page 10

Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (minor leagues): The first month of play by some 444 minor league clubs resulted in a loss of one million fans. That was caused mainly by broadcast and television of major league games in minor league territory, Trautman told the major bigwigs.

The Justice Department in Washington already has indicated that any attempt to curb major league radio or telecasts might be interpreted as a monopoly.

The survey of minor league attendance will continue throughout the season. Then Trautman will present the plight of his organization to the Justice Department for what it is worth. "As things are going," said Trautman, "the death of the minors seems inevitable."

The majors, however, did nothing at yesterday's joint session on the television-radio subject, except to name a study committee.

Walter Hagen won his first U. S. Open golf championship in 1914 at the age of 22.

CIO Wins Lone Tilt In Class A Monday

Three of the four scheduled softball games were washed out by rain Monday night, with the CIO winning the only tilt played 12-0, over City Sporting Goods.

A new round will begin Thursday night, with the postponed games being held over until its completion.

The CIO had to go only five innings to gain a decision. They scored seven runs in the first inning and four in the second to wrap up the contest. Six errors by the losers made it easy, since the CIO got only seven hits.

Henry Demott gave up only six hits to the Sporting Goods. It was the 10th win of the year for the league leading Class A CIO club.

A large crowd watched the Salem Amvets administer their fourth straight beating of the season to the General Fireproofing club of Youngstown Saturday night at West End Park.

The local club won, 6-4, as Wayne Russell twirled a five-hitter. Pat Mancuso collected two of the six Salem hits.

Williams, Costner Go For Welterweight Shot

PHILADELPHIA, July 11—(AP)—Weather permitting, lightweight champion Ike Williams battles George (Sugar) Costner tonight in an over-the-weight bout that could give the winner a crack at the welterweight crown.

Both are top contenders for Sugar Ray Robinson's welter title.

Williams, long king of the 135-pounders, weighed in at 143 yesterday.

Costner, hard-hitting Camden, N. J., puncher, tipped the scales at 146.

There will be no weigh-in but if bad weather pushes the Shibe Park show back to Wednesday the fighters will have to mount the scales again. It was postponed yesterday because of rain.

Thursday afternoon. This was announced when the group met with Mrs. William Morgan as hostess.

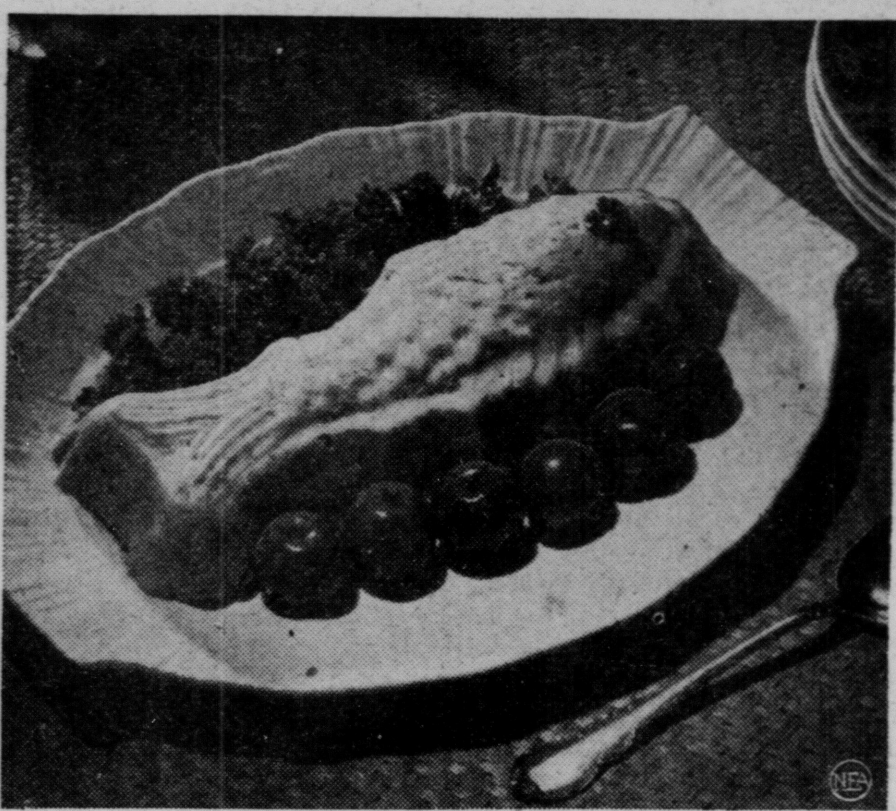

Sixty friends and relatives were present when the Community of Kensington held a miscellaneous wedding shower for Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Falon, recent newly-weds. The latter was the former Esther Ringer of Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ray visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strifeler and son of Minerva.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Farmer of San-Jose, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. P. Caniff and son of Steuben-ville were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Davidson.

A miscellaneous wedding shower was held in the annex of the Christian Church Thursday for Mr. and Mrs. John A. Guthrie, Jr., of Minerva R. D. The couple were married recently in the Kensington Christian Church by Rev. Robert Mullikin.

Mrs. Lewis Brenner has returned home from the Salem Central Clinic Hospital and is reported improving.

SUMMER SALMON MOLD is an easily-prepared and inexpensive warm weather dish.

The Cookbook

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Salmon Mold Is a Summer Treat

CANNED fish makes perfect summer dishes with very little kitchen work. Furthermore, both pink salmon and Maine sardines are among the cheapest protein foods attainable. Pink salmon is so plentiful and inexpensive that generally speaking it comes to about 40 cents a pound. And Maine sardines are selling for 10 cents a can throughout the country. Each can weighs 3 1/4 ounces and contains four plump sardines which are larger and meatier than the imported variety.

Summer Salmon Mold (Serves 6)

One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 cup milk, 2 egg yolks, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon mustard, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 large can salmon, flaked.

Soften gelatin in milk in top of double boiler. Beat together egg yolks, salt, mustard, and paprika. Add small amount of milk to the egg yolk mixture and return mixture to double boiler. Cook over hot, not boiling, water stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and cool. Stir in lemon juice and fish. Turn in to fish mold or loaf pan and chill until firm. Unmold and serve.

Sardine-Stuffed Cucumbers (Serves 4)

Slice off ends of two tender young cucumbers. Remove centers with an apple corer. (Keep centers and chop and mix with canned tomato soup for a quick, unusual soup.) Mash one can (3 1/4 ounces) Maine sardines. Mix with 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 small onion (minced) and season to taste with salt and pepper.

Stuff sardine mixture into hollowed-out cucumbers. Score cucumber skins with a fork. Wrap stuffed cucumbers in waxed paper or aluminum foil and chill thoroughly. Slice and serve on crisp lettuce with a spoonful of two of sour cream.

Broiled Maine Sardine Canapes (Makes 8 canapes)

Drain 2 cans (3 1/4 ounces) Maine sardines. Mix 2 tablespoons butter with one teaspoon dry mustard and a few drops of Worcestershire sauce. Spread the sardines with this mixture. Crush about 8 saltines. Dip the sardines in the cracker crumbs. Broil them quickly—about 5 minutes. Serve them on toast strips with parsley and lemon wedges.

Salem Man Touring Europe Describes London's Sights

John Mulford of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mulford of 292 S. Lincoln ave., is currently touring in Europe with three friends from Kenyon College. All four boys were graduated from Kenyon in June.

John and friends flew to England where they are staying at present. They plan to continue to France, Spain, Switzerland, Italy, Germany, Holland and Belgium.

He reports that England is on a daylight saving system which exceeds ours—adding two hours to the length of a day. It is twilight there until almost 11, he says.

His first day in London he drew numerous stares and was finally told that the object of the curiosity was his clothes. No one in London wears seersucker or palm beach suits, preferring instead heavy tweeds or flannels.

Mulford was quite impressed with the Tower of London, which he inspected on a tour. "It is here you can see our entire western culture, built up layer by layer from Roman times," he reports.

"The block and the spot where Henry VIII had Anne Bolyn and several other of his wives beheaded was pointed out with pride. We had a quick look at the crown jewels and were awed by the sight of a golden salt shaker almost two feet high standing above the selection of royal tableware."

John described one meal, consisting of fish and chips (fillet and french fries), warm beer and cheddar cheese cost only $1.75 in U. S. money and was very good. He estimates that one dollar will buy two good meals a day.

"Good meat and grain products are hard to get, but can be obtained for a price that is often too steep for the average Englishman, but not outside our American dollar range," he said.

The group took a recent trip to Oxford University, a two-hour train ride from London. They noticed the heavy bombing damage from the war, still unrepaired, enroute.

McCarthy To Get Income Tax Audit

MADISON, Wis., July 11—(AP)—The Madison Capital Times said today that the Wisconsin Department of Taxation has ordered a field audit of Sen. Joseph McCarthy's 1949 state income tax return. However, tax commissioner Arthur E. Wegner denied the story.

"We aren't through with an office audit, routine for every taxpayer's return," Wegner said. "Then, if anything unusual is shown, we will go further."

The newspaper said that a department auditor had been assigned to make a detailed check on the Wisconsin Republican's return, with particular reference to his claim that he made interest payments totalling $15,172.

Wegner confirmed that Wisconsin's junior Senator had deducted the sum for interest, along with $2,290 for stock market losses, and had paid no state income tax for the fourth straight year.

Loan Rate For Wheat Is Fixed

$2.11 Per Bushel To Apply In County

A basic loan rate for 1950-crop wheat produced in Columbiana County of $2.11 per bushel is announced by the Production and Marketing Administration county committee. Last year's rate was $2.07 a bushel.

The basic rate applies to wheat grading U.S. No. 1, Clifford F. Shaw, committee chairman, points out.

Wheat produced on farms co-operating in the 1950 wheat acreage allotment program grading No. 3 or better, or No. 4 or No. 5 because of test weight or because it contains wheat of the classes durum and/or red durum, will be eligible for Commodity Credit Corporation loan or purchase agreement.

The chairman says that a schedule of premiums and discounts for the various qualities of 1950-crop wheat will be issued at an early date and will be available for inspection at the county office in Lisbon.

To be eligible for the loan, wheat must be placed in approved storage either on the farm or in a commercial warehouse or elevator, according to the chairman. Storage allowances will be continued for 1950-crop wheat on the same general basis as last year. This means the farmer will receive 7 cents per bushel additional to the loan rate for storing their wheat on their own farm.

Mr. Shaw explains that the county rate is based on a national average rate of $1.00 a bushel (predicated on No. 2 wheat) to farmers as announced by PMA on June 30. The equivalent national average rate for U.S. No. 1 wheat is $2.00 a bushel.

Loans and purchase agreements will be available from CCC through the county PMA office, in accordance with the program provisions, from time of harvest through January, 1951. They will mature on April 30, 1951, or earlier, on demand.

'Late' Scout Troop Sees Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, July 11—(AP)—The Boy Scouts' "lost" battalion, a troop from Los Angeles that didn't arrive for the National Jamboree at Valley Forge until the day it closed, was making up for lost time here today.

Because the 33 members of the Rainbow troop didn't get to see the places of interest toured by others of the 47,000 scouts, the Fraternal Order of Police arranged a special expedition to historic shrines for them today.

The troop left Los Angeles in plenty of time to attend the Valley Forge encampment where their special bus broke down on Arizona. They made a last-minute bus breakdown enroute across the continent and arrived last Thursday, nearly a week after the encampment began.

The troop leaves here tonight for New York where police will see that they have a good time. Then they'll start for home.

Stop offs scheduled in several Canadian cities and in Detroit, Chicago.

The "better late than never" battalion is happy about the whole thing.

$883,660 Embezzler To Receive Parole

WASHINGTON, July 11—(AP)—The U.S. Parole Board said today Richard H. Crowe, New York banker convicted on an $883,660 embezzlement last year, will be let out of prison Aug. 7.

The Board said that Crowe, now 42, has a good job awaiting him when he is released on parole from Danbury, Conn., correctional institution.

Crowe became eligible for parole on July 6 upon completing one-third of his three-year sentence.

Crowe was formerly assistant manager of the Broadway office of the National City Bank of New York. He disappeared in March, 1949, with $883,660 in cash and securities. The FBI picked him up less than a month later in Daytona Beach, Fla. Parole Board officials said that all of the securities were recovered and restitution made on all except about $5,000 of the missing cash.

Pettibone Teardown Order Continued

COLUMBUS, July 11—(AP)—The Pettibone club, plush Geauga county casino under the fire of Gov. Frank J. Lausche for months, likely will be standing for months to come.

Continuance of an appeal against Fire Marshal Harry Callan's teardown order to Aug. 1 was granted by Callan last night. That means the club will not be torn down by July 29 as directed by Callan's order of June 29.

The fire marshal's decree was the latest in a series of moves by the Lausche administration attempting to close the club for keeps. The continuance was granted because a photographer, a witness for the club, was unable to be present.

The teardown order, alleging various fire hazards to human life in the club building, was served June 29 on "Lawrence Sobel, secretary agent of the club, Harry Szabo, occupant in charge, and Alfred Goldsmith, alias Alfred Goldsmith."

U. S. Readies Five War Hospitals

Korean Casualties Will Use Facilities

WASHINGTON, July 11—(INS)—A high government source said today the Defense Department will reactivate five general hospitals over the nation to care for American casualties in the Korean war.

The official declined to indicate whether this move means that heavy casualties are feared before the Korean fighting ends. However, reactivation of the five hospitals would provide several thousand beds for war wounded.

The hospitals to be reopened include four operated by the Army and one by the Navy.

They are the Valley Forge General Hospital at Phoenixville, Pa.; Murphy General at Waltham, Mass.; Percy Jones General at Battle Creek, Mich.; the U. S. Naval Hospital at Long Beach, Calif., and either the Oliver General at Augusta, Ga., which was recently transferred to the Veterans Administration, or the Lawson General at Atlanta.

The officials said that the first step in reactivating the hospitals will be to put them in a "standby" condition.

In a "standby" condition, the hospitals would not be immediately staffed but would be ready for surgeons, nurses and other hospital attendants to move in, and for occupancy by patients at a moment's notice.

Lisbon Tailor Retires After Fifty Years

LISBON, July 11—Will Hollinger, well known local tailor, has retired after 50 years at the bench.

Mr. Hollinger, who learned the tailoring business when an apprentice worked the first year without pay, and tailored suits could be bought for $12, has retired because of ill health. He has closed his shop on N. Park ave.

Plan Improvements At Guilford Lake

Plans are underway for extensive improvements at Guilford Lake, a state park near Lisbon, by the state conservation department, division of inland lakes and streams.

Plans call for the expenditure of approximately $25,000 in the erection of new shelter houses, toilet facilities, drilling of water wells, equipment for grading and maintenance of the park property.

It is also planned to lower the water level in the lake this winter and to kill weeds on the lake bottom which have hampered fishing and swimming. Rock salt would be used to kill the growth, and the lake would be allowed to refill in the spring.

time. Architect Paul Boucherle assured the board that the building will be ready for September occupancy.

A report was made of the cracks and leaks in the cement bleachers of the west grandstand at Reilly stadium. A representative of a Cleveland firm stated that the cement is disintegrating and water is leaking through the cracks under the stands. He estimated the cost of repair to be $4,986, plus another $3,800 for waterproofing.

A further study will be made on the stadium's condition. Replacement of 300 bleacher seats at the stadium also was approved.

Three Teachers Resign

Supt. Kerr reported the acceptance of resignations from three teachers. They were: Winifred Shelles, fifth grade instructor at the Columbia school; Ethel Beardmore, senior German and history instructor at the high school; and Cy Lipaj, assistant football coach and metal industries teacher at the high school.

Arthur Baddeley was appointed by the board to serve as part-time assistant janitor.

The board also appointed a committee to determine the colors the high school auditorium is to be painted. Two color schemes were presented, but the board could make no definite approval.

British Engineer, Here Two Years, Unable To Find Job

America may be the land of opportunity for most of the people who have come here from other countries to live, but Mr. and Mrs. Reuben DeHaan of 150 E. Pershing st have not found it so.

Having arrived in Salem July 14, 1948, Mr. and Mrs. DeHaan gave up the 25-year lease on their home, sold their furniture and left war-ravaged London, England, to seek new opportunities in the United States. But things haven't been going too well for them.

Mr. DeHaan, a civil service employee in his homeland, has not been able to get a job since last Christmas. The reason, he been told, is that he is too old. Although perhaps aged beyond his years due to the harrowing experiences he and his wife encountered during World War II in London, he is only 47 years old.

Giving up hope of getting a job, Mr. DeHaan and his wife will leave Wednesday for New York where they will board a Dutch ship Friday for England—exactly two years from the time they left.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHaan do not want to leave Salem. They have family ties here and they like the United States, but in spite of Mr. DeHaan's offer to take any kind of job, he has not been able to obtain employment.

The couple's daughter, Jennie, who married a Salem soldier, Alfred Smith, in 1945 in London, lives with her husband and three-year-old daughter, Sondra, at 515 Franklin st.

Mrs. Smith met her husband in 1943 while he was stationed as a military policeman at Leicestershire Square, a part of London, where she managed a small store. They came to the United States in 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHaan have one other daughter, Irene, 23, who is living with them. She plans to stay in Salem if she can get a job; otherwise, she will return to England too.

Agriculture Post Goes To Indiana Man

WASHINGTON, July 11—(AP)—The Truman administration used the maneuver of dividing the opposition in selecting a new undersecretary of agriculture to campaign for its farm program.

Clarence J. McCormick, a leader in the Indiana Farm Bureau, was the man whose selection was announced late yesterday.

The powerful American Farm Bureau Federation, of which the Indiana organization is part, is perhaps the bitterest foe of the administration's controversial farm plan advanced last year by Secretary Brannan.

Nomination of McCormick for the under secretaryship comes shortly before the start of a fall election campaign that is expected to see the Brannan plan a major issue in farm belt states.

While McCormick's views on the Brannan plan were not definitely known in detail here, an aide of Brannan said it was a "very safe bet" that the appointee favored the administration-backed proposal.

Sneak Thief Steals $12 From Ellsworth Shop

Forty-five minutes can be considered a very short time when one is away from his work.

For a thief, however, it can be all the time in the world to make a small haul and get away—especially if he has access to the place he wants to rob.

William Juergens reported to police Monday that he stepped out of his printing shop at 176 N. Ellsworth ave from 10:15 to 11 a. m. During that interval, someone had taken $2.25 from a desk drawer and $8 to $10 in bills and change from the cash register.
